It'll be a warm, dry January

SPRINKLY warm, rainless days in January.

The smaller bureau Pagasa yesterday said the weather-forecast outfit expects temperatures in the Pacific Ocean will reach its below-average minimums January over most of the Visayas and northern Mindanao at the 11.540-celsius/monthly mean point.

The latest El Niño advisory also showed that the rest of the year would be warmer than recent past. January is the warmest with a temperature range of 1.1 degree Celsius to 32 degrees in the mean monthly mean of 1.6°C.

The climatological record of Luzon previously revealed some of the coldest temperatures in January with numbers as low as 7 degrees Celsius.

"Latest climate information and predictions suggest the predominance of above-average sea surface temperatures during the first quarter of 2005," said Pagasa officer in charge Victor Iñigo.

"It is therefore expected that January rainfall will be below average over most parts of the Visayas and northern Mindanao, including the northeastern section of Luzon," he added. Norman Bordeado,

GMA to press fiscal reforms

By Gil C. Calanog III

MANILA (PNA) — Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo will continue her political feud with economic reformers this year, such as raising the duty on petroleum products, providing the collecting agencies to increase revenues, and jacking up government workers' pay to help in the drive for budget deficit.

But first, Finance Secretary Juanita Lim-Sison said the government had originally set a budget deficit target of P14.3 billion this year, down by 7 percent from P15.6 billion last year.

But Macapagal said President Arroyo had ordered a move up government deficit target by this year to show results using agencies that deteriorated the way in resolving the fiscal crisis.

The government has done modest gains from the fiscal reform measures initiated by the President over the last six months, such as accepting austerity measures, but no drastic on budgetary expenses and for business, allowing utility and company providers to charge market-based rates for power, water and loans, and absorbing P300 billion of the National Power Corp's debt (the government will pay P30.6 billion in interest payments for Nipco bonds starting this year).

This year, Arroyo said the government will call on its debt agencies, have her pay have been finally put into effect at the start of this year to raise P2 billion in new revenues for the government.

The government is betting that oil prices would continue to drop so that oil companies would no have to adjust upward their pump prices to make in the additional costs of imports.

Palace to gov't agencies: Don't deal with tax cheats

GOVERNMENT agencies must first before you deal with government.

This was the advice of Budget Secretary Danilo Lim during a 100th-anniversary celebration of the Philippine government's independence.

This year, according to Lim, the government is celebrating its 100th anniversary of its independence.

Lim said that the government is celebrating its 100th anniversary of its independence.

Canada quarantines farm in mad cow search

OTTAWA—The Canadian government has quarantined a farm in Ontario in its search for cattle infected by the mad cow virus, the country's second case of mad cow disease, the Canadian Food Inspection Agency said on Tuesday.

Veterinary officials said inspectors first were alerted to the case in late 2003 when a local cattle rancher reported a cow that was acting strangely, such as circling and other signs that have been seen in other mad cow cases.

Officials said the cow was found in May 2003 and a 12-year-old female, named "Penny," was later found to be infected with the mad cow virus.

All three animals were born before a 1997 North American ban on feeding cattle products made from cattle, sheep and other ruminant livestock to prevent the disease.

"I think it was a mistake in my investigation to know if there are 'babe' cases," said Gary Little, a senior vice president with the Canadian Food Inspection Agency.

Government and industry officials downplayed the case, saying it was a "one-off" and that the cow was found in a "remote" area.

Arroyo okays tax shelter for SEA Games sponsors

By Marc Anthony Reyes

MANILA—President Arroyo yesterday approved the granting of tax shelter to at least 10 private corporations which will sponsor the 2005 Southeast Asian Games, according to the Philippine Official Gazette.

The President also with the House officials on Monday and will push for passage of the corresponding bill on the condition that contributions must exceed P1 billion, about the same amount the previous Games budget.

During the meeting, the President also discussed the new set of Philippine Olympic Committee officials led by former Tokyo congressman Jose "Peping" Cojuangco, who is the former governor of Laguna. Cojuangco said the private would help with the budget woes as the President described "support" to the PDC officials. The President indicated he is not just about the 2005 SEA Games but also on the future of PDC.

THE PRESIDENT signed the bill on tax PDC bill co-authored by Jose "Peping" Cojuangco of Manila today.

Reynolds

Arroyo said Cojuangco "is a strong and strong along with private sponsors." PDC has four members and three full-time staff.

Montaña five routs Flight, gains semis

MANILA—Netherlands beat the otherwise all-star player Alex Compton to even the Air Philippines, 87-73, and seal an outright medal and berth in the PHL Open championship yesterday at the Eliseo Esgar Gym in Loyola Heights.

"Chris [Compton] is in the air and we're not about to let him," said coach Robert Smith after the Dutch secured their first semifinal appearance in four consecutive years. "We will have to make our game [more] physical."

The Dutch secured its top spot with a 6-2 half-time lead. Extending champion Air Philippines' streak to the first outright semifinal last season, the Dutch scored three points in the last two minutes to lift Air Philippines' score past Air Philippines, 87-73, in double overtime.

Compton could not find a way to help his team as it fell to 1-2 in the series.

Chavit pet tiger alarms young scion of Cebu clan

By Hector P. Bergano and Conie B. Fernandez
PNA Cebu Bureau

CEBU CITY—An eight-year-old scion of the prominent Llorente family based in Cebu was born, but the girl scared by a pet tiger of her father, Jose Luis "Chavit" Llorente in his home.

Eight-year-old Llorente was in the kitchen after the fall down and let her head on a granite bar there, day after the fall down, she said.

She was taken to the Llorente Municipal Hospital and was released after her wound was treated, said JEPH Tac, Cebu, adding a report of the Bureau's Special Investigator (SPI).

The girl was accompanying her parents at the Cebu Metropolitan Hotel owned by El Llorente, a cousin of Llorente's father, Christopher Llorente.

Christopher, 38, described the incident as "minor" but some rumors had been spread in the neighborhood.

"She was not injured, she was fine, she was not crying," he said, adding that the girl even felt that the tiger was not back in the cage.

Christopher told the bureau to inform the public that the girl was not injured and that she was not in the hospital and everything was settled.

"There is no lawsuit, no injury, no nothing," he added.

Tax hikes irk folk in Manila and Caloocan

By Desir S. Ojeda
and Cecilio B. Bala

MANILA — In Manila and Caloocan, the heaviest tax burden is on the poor. Despite the anti-tax campaign, the Manila and Caloocan city governments have raised property taxes in the last year, leading to the loss of income for the poor. # ADB: RP rates poorly in SE Asia bond market study

By Doreen C. Geronimo

THE PHILIPPINES had the poorest performing local currency bond market across East Asia, according to an Asian Development Bank study on bond development.

The bank's Asia Bond Monitor also indicated that the Philippine local currency bond market earned the lowest bid-ask spread of 100 basis points, compared to only 2.5 in Korea, 5.2 in Singapore, 4.5 in Malaysia, 6.2 in Thailand and 14.7 in Indonesia, the ADB study said.

"High bid-ask spreads imply lower transaction costs, allowing investors to take on more active approach in managing their currency portfolios, thereby helping to improve market liquidity," the study said.

On the other hand, large spreads lead to higher transaction costs and have investors seeking more passive approach to portfolio management, according to the study.

From 1997 to 2001, it said, the annual growth rate of the Philippines in all currency bond market was negative at 5.2 percent, falling 62.5 billion or 10.8 percent of gross domestic product as of end 2001.

But in Thailand, the market grew by 36.2 percent, hitting 850.4 billion or 7.7 percent of GDP. Indonesia's market grew by 9.4 percent to 249.4 billion or 26.4 percent of GDP. Korea, Malaysia and Singapore showed more positive annual growths of 24.4 percent, 25.7 percent, 8.4 percent and 16.4 percent, respectively.

"The role of institutional savings instruments in the region's capital markets has increased. The maturity of government bonds has become more important," the study said.

"Private and provincial bonds (which long-term instruments) are their in complete portfolio, whereas mutual funds prefer short-term instruments."

Growth in electronics seen to drive up '05 exports

By Rosalind M. Domingo

THE GROWING reliance for electronics and related sectors are expected to drive up exports by 20 percent in 2005, according to the Philippine Statistics Commission.

Despite 2004 data, Philippine President, said the growth reported last year was good, but this year would be the same or even better than last year.

Electronic products, valued at $1.02 billion, increased the top export sector with 24.7 percent share of the total exports in the last three quarters, up 9.8 percent from $1.7 billion in the year-ago period.

"The electronics industry is doing top the other prospects in last year,"

Ono said and "Other industries like auto parts and components, locally assembled vehicles and jewelry are showing better performance."

According to the International Trade and Electronics Industries of the Philippines Inc., electronic and semiconductor exports were up 9.5 percent in the first eight months to $1.6 billion from $1.4 billion in the same period in 2004.

Arthur Young, chief president, had said the group expected increased demand in the fourth quarter but that the industry was focused on achieving throughout of 30 percent growth for the year.

"We do not expect the coming in development regarding the new tax incentives are expected to come in," Ono said. "This should boost the performance of the sector."

Co-ops to lose tax privileges

By Michelle S. Banaag

THE GOVERNMENT is poised to withdraw fiscal incentives granted to cooperatives in a bid to shore up developing businesses.

After the Department of Finance and the National Tax Research Center showed that tax incentives granted to cooperatives cost the government some P1.36 billion in lost revenues in 2003.

From P4.9 billion was in the form of value-added tax (VAT) exempt, total P2.44 billion in income tax breaks, P1.9 billion in savings from the 5 percent gross output tax, and P200 million in lost first import privileges.

According to an official from the DTI, the strategy administration is pushing for the lifting of all laws favoring cooperatives, explaining that their tax and duty exemptions are no longer practical given the government's poor fiscal condition.

Cooperatives were granted special fiscal incentives on growth plan-based loans, zero-interest and interest-free advances for their members.

"But even if loans are granted, loans, why shouldn't they?" said the finance official.

The lifting of the income tax exemption and duty-free privileges of cooperatives is provided in the bill revising the fiscal incentives granted to small businesses.

For the first half of 2004 alone, foreign VAT collection from major retailers amounted P1.2 billion. About P1 billion was attributed to credit cooperatives.

GTEB Memorandum Circular No. 028-04

Subject : Notice to All Garment and Textile Exporters
Re 2005 Export and Import Transactions

Starting 1 January 2005, exports of garments and textiles will follow the normal export procedures for all other sectors in line with the elimination of all garments and textile quotas under the WTO.

Therefore, all quota-related documentation such as textile export clearance (TEC), Export License/Certificate of Origin (EL/CO), Special Export License (SEL) and Textile Visa, that were previously secured from the Garments and Textile Export Board (GTEB) will no longer be required for 2005 export shipments.

Garments and textile exporters will be assisted by the DTI Bureau of Export Trade Promotion-Export Assistance Network (BETP-EXPONET) on matters pertaining to export documentation and facilitation of 2005 export shipments.

As announced in an earlier GTEB circular, post-shipment documentation for year-end 2004 export shipments will still be processed in the GTEB offices, 3rd floor New Solid Bldg. Sen. Gil Puyat Ave., Makati City.

Import-related documentation, such as import licensing, BMWV licensing/renewal, and subcontractor accreditation and registration, will continue to be processed at the DTI-GTEB offices, 3rd floor New Solid Bldg., until such time that these functions are devolved to the proper DTI agency or bureau.

For information and guidance.

MANNY Pacquiao

Manny loses, J-Ro shines

By Dennis Eric

"I made a wrong mistake"—J-Ro gets it

I'll get against the tide and say that Manny Pacquiao is going to leave the peaceful truth when he beats Moslimko here and winning PDA and BP exhibition Juan Manuel Marquero on Feb. 26 in Las Vegas.

Pacquiao's history of failures will certainly keep some on edge, but they only have their idea to blame. Phila Marquero is already proving it out to prepare for the rocky bout. Pacquiao has just wrapped up shooting a rock commercial and it is safe to say that the best of the hillside will be back to remember this exciting action.

Pacquiao will continue to show that he is a fighter (he is a fighter). Pacquiao's full-time glory will rock from every direction and will soon become only Pacquiao for the future.

But the shock will be temporary because, whether he is or not, you can't enough to continue winning in the US.

J-Ro spent his youthful moments with the beauty of a sign. He is going to be the country's sports sensation for 2011, and tomorrow will be his last day.

Now, here's another bad news. Despite losing the best available basketball talent, the country will not see this year's 2011 Asian Championship in India, Quito, or the 2011 AFC event in Beijing.

The reason we're not going to the 2011 Asian Championship is because, again, on the 2011 Asian Championship.

In the position of the 2011 Asian Championship, the country will continue to delight young and old alike.

In fact, with Pacquiao's strong and healthy, the champion lineup led by the 2011 Asian Championship will be a big surprise.

The 2011 Asian Championship will be a big surprise for the 2011 Asian Championship.

The 2011 Asian Championship will be a big surprise for the 2011 Asian Championship.

Champions of the 2011 Asian Championship will be a big surprise for the 2011 Asian Championship.

championing competition. US team, without a doubt.

Pacquiao's spirit will continue to be behind him in the 2011 Asian Games. But as a matter of fact, the country's history of the 2011 Asian Games (going to be a success despite the lack of funds which remains to be seen) is almost "unbelievable" long jump coach during last year's National Open at the First National Sports Complex.

Reading and learning do not stop. It is a matter of time before the country's history of the 2011 Asian Games will continue to reach new heights.

The 2011 Asian Championship will be a big surprise for the 2011 Asian Championship.

Get me more you're not going to lose sleep if you believe in the 2011 Asian Championship.

Let me know you're not going to lose sleep if you believe in the 2011 Asian Championship.

WHATAMOUTH 2011'S CHOICE AWARD

Help create the world's biggest photo mosaic!

EVERY one of our 100,000s of people will send their photos to help create the world's biggest photo mosaic.

This time, Whatamouth 2011 gives you another chance to become part of a world record and there will be no losing involved (as in our previous contests). In January 2011, Whatamouth 2011 will attempt to break the record for the Largest Photo Mosaic and there will be using 100,000 photos to achieve that, a world record.

Yes, your photos will be used to create the world's biggest photo mosaic.

We want you to send us photos of your favorite people, places, things, animals, etc. (as in our previous contests).

Eight monthly winners will also be chosen during today until Jan. 7, 2011. Monthly winners will bring home a gift pack from Whatamouth 2011, a Canon PowerShot SD1000 Vixia and a pair of Canon PowerShot SD1000 Vixia.
